

The Orfelin Circle invites you to book presentation:

A Little Advice for a Better Life by Milena Trobozić Garfield

Milena will talk about her everyday experience in the affluent East Coast suburbs: kitchens not meant for cooking, dogs on Prozac, weekend vacations, feminism without gender equality, the end of romance, public solitude, American optimism turned into American anxiety, smart houses, the end of old age, shopping as entertainment and more generally about art, culture and media in America
